The President's Corner – August 7, 2020

Hello, fellow members:

August is here along with a busy flying season for the Lazy Eights. The field is in great condition thanks to all the members that have chipped in and I've been informed that our camping weekends have been fun for all participants. Please know that back by popular demand, our 34th annual flying event will be sanctioned and held on August 15th and 16th. While we will not be inviting the general public or spectators this year, we hope that many members and close flying friends will attend along with their families. We will need volunteers for the gate and registration table. We will have a work party TBA for some minimal set up. All details will be discussed at our next meeting to be held on Thursday night, August 13th at 6:30 p.m. at the field. Hope to see you all there.

Bill Dexter
